SHORT RECITAL OF THE CASE

The Union representing the workmen of the factory had made demands regarding increments and grades and uniforms etc. Some of these are now pending in adjudication before the Hon'ble Industrial Tribunal, Haryana in reference No. 48 of 1972. The management had filed audited balance-sheet and Profit and Loss account statements showing losses and had pleaded no capacity to meet the demands.

However, the management was anxious to do its best in the circumstances for the welfare of employees and the union appreciated the difficulties of infancy of the management. The parties have, after negotiations reached a settlement on the following terms :

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

1. That the management, although not liable under law, agree to pay bonus for the year 1971-72 at 8.33 % of their earnings. The amounts already paid on this account will be adjusted.
2. That the management will be issuing two cotton uniforms per annum to workmen operating machines and to chokidars and office peons.
3. That the management agree to allow increments to workmen on the following rates effective from 1st April, 1973 :—

Wage Rate	Increment
Rs. 105—150	Rs. 5.00
Rs. 151—200	Rs. 7.50
Rs. 200—300	Rs. 10.00
4. That the management is paying and will continue to pay minimum rates of wages applicable to the Engineering Industry and laid down from time to time, or July, 1972 wherever applicable.
5. This agreement shall be valid and will remain in force for a period of three years, subject to termination according to law.
6. The sick leave shall be admissible as per the Punjab Industrial Establishment (National and Festival and Casual and Stick Leave) Rules, 1965.
7. That the parties agree to submit a copy of this settlement to the Conciliation Officer, Ballabgarh area for registration and also before the Hon'ble Industrial Tribunal for favour of passing an award in terms thereof.
8. Gratuity shall be paid as per the latest law.
